

In partnership

The Dr Andrew Ng Global Missions Fund was born of a compelling vision to carry on the legacy of the late Dr Andrew Ng, who together with his wife, Belinda, gave themselves to the Lord's work in Africa. They were the first Singaporean missionaries to that vast continent in the late 1970s, and Andrew, who gave up a lucrative career as a surgeon in Singapore, served at Galmi Hospital in Niger. Many people in the sub-Saharan region were greatly blessed through Andrew's surgical skills as well as through the couple's ministry. After a 12-year stint, the Ngs were called back to Singapore where they continued to be actively engaged in global missions through SIM East Asia. Andrew went home to the Lord on 7 January 2019 and the huge turnout and moving eulogies at his wake are testament to a life lived for God and others.

The Fund's Objectives

Andrew was always seeking the Lord and responsive to exploring new frontiers that have yet to be touched by the good news of Christ's redemptive sacrifice. The Dr Andrew Ng Global Missions Fund will keep his vision alive by providing financial support for projects that will facilitate the preaching of the Gospel to communities where He is least known, amongst those who live and die without Him. The time to act has never been more urgent.

The plan is to raise S$5 million for the work of SIM, an international mission organisation with more than 2,000 active missionaries serving in over 70 countries. The money will go primarily towards:

- Church planting and community development projects, especially in pioneering areas
- Training and developing missionaries and their local co-workers
- Missional businesses to support missionaries
- Technology and tools for missionaries to be more effective in outreach.

Bartley Christian Church, where Andrew was a founding member, and SIM, where he served as a missionary for more than four decades, have each donated $250,000 to kick start the Fund.

Andrew lived his life according to the 3P - Pray, Preach and Participate. He prayed fervently, preached powerfully with his life by modeling Christ's character of humility, love and compassion, and participated passionately in the Lord's glorious mission.

The Dr Andrew Ng Global Missions Fund will be managed by a Board comprising representatives from Bartley Christian Church and SIM, and Christians with financial and investment experience. For more information on the Fund, please visit
